Last night my husbands twin sister died from a year long battle with cancer and I consulted the cards at about 1am this morning. I was amazed to find that I picked both the Death and Renewal card. It continues to blow me away how incredible the connection is with all of this. Many many thanks Shé. Kind regards." - Tracy K*

Nigel Brennan Freed

We ran a story in the Shambhalla Newsletter this in July on kidnapped Australian journalist Nigel Brennan. Nigel's best friend and photojournalist Megan Cullen came to see me for a psychic consultation in May to see if he was still alive and if his family should keep hoping. Yesterday it was announced that he was freed <http://www.theaustralian.com.au/news/world/somali-kidnappers-free-australian-journalist-nigel-brennan/story-e6frq6so-1225804062555> and Megan sent me the below email today: -

"Hi She`!

Yes, it is such fantastic news, and everything you said about his conditions, release etc...was true! Your words always made me keep faith that he would be free...and now he is! I think he will be back in Australia soon...."

What a difference ... Nigel Brennan pictured before his capture, and just after his release.

Megan, we are all so pleased that he is coming home. Thank you to all of our e-newsletter readers. (Now nearly 3000) When I told you all that we could all still help this man you believed it. Good on you all. All of your positive thoughts and actions regarding kidnapped journalist Nigel Brennan have paid off...

As if by magic, he has been freed.

Now that is true positive power.
Now that is what this is all about!
